ASBURY PARK, N.J. -- Dedicated to serving the needs of children who need us most, the Kiwanis Club of Asbury Park has a laser focus on education and literacy, food and clothing insecurities and leadership development. For the second year in a row, the Club is proud to launch EAT HERE NOW, which will be the Club's primary funding source for these critical initiatives throughout 2024.

"Our Club is in an incredible position, having just come off the success of EAT HERE NOW 2023 – our most successful fundraiser ever. It relies on the generosity of local restaurants to offer dining discounts to coupon booklet holders. And this year, we are excited to share that we have 43 restaurant partners. That's 30% more than 2023," said Steve Everk, President of the Asbury Park Kiwanis Club.

"EAT HERE NOW 2024 boasts a whopping $500+ value, a 50% increase over 2023 – and it's easier than ever to get. Purchase a coupon booklet for $30 and enjoy discounted dining across town, knowing your entire donation will fund life-changing youth initiatives," concluded Everk.

While Asbury Park youth are EAT HERE NOW 2024's beneficiary, it is expected to increase awareness and drive NEW customers to the fundraiser's restaurant partners. That's a huge WIN-WIN.
