ASBURY PARK, NJ — Dedicated to serving the needs of children through fighting hunger, improving literacy and offering guidance, the Kiwanis Club of Asbury Park is presenting an Eat Here Now Fundraiser, offering a variety of discounts at many local, popular restaurants throughout the City.

"This fundraiser has been made possible by the generosity of 33 participating restaurants that share the Club's vision – make the Asbury Park community an incredible place for all to live and work," said Cori Lewin, President of the Asbury Park Kiwanis Club.

All profits from the sale of the $30 restaurant and cafe coupon booklet valued at $350 enable the Kiwanis Club of Asbury Park to fund youth enrichment programs.

"We've made participation as straightforward as possible. Simply purchase a coupon booklet for $30 and enjoy dining across town – at a discount – knowing your contribution will benefit worthwhile children's initiatives," Lewin added. Coupon booklets can be purchased here.

The Kiwanis Club is an all-volunteer, service-led and community-driven organization that's geared toward children in the community.

Kiwanis International connects people around the world with opportunities to passionately pursue club volunteerism, fundraising and membership that make a positive, lasting impact in the lives of children.
