7.2 a. If a written allegation of “conduct unbecoming a member of the Kiwanis family” is made against a member of a Kiwanis club, the club president shall immediately request from Kiwanis International a copy of the detailed procedures to be followed by clubs and shall appoint a special investigator to investigate the matter (or, if the club president is accused, the immediate past president shall act).

7.2 b. The Board shall consider the investigation report and determine whether to hold a hearing on the matter. The President shall notify the accused member of the investigation results and whether the Board intends to pursue the allegation(s). If a hearing is held, the Board shall then meet and report its decision, whether the member did or did not engage in “conduct unbecoming” and, based on that decision, the appropriate disciplinary action, if any, as follows: informal counseling, a verbal reprimand, written reprimand, suspension from office or club membership, or removal from office or club membership. The determination of the discipline should be based on the seriousness of the unbecoming conduct. All disciplinary actions shall be documented in club records.

7.2 c. If either the accused member or the investigator believes that some part of the investigation process was faulty or the determination was incorrect, either party has the right to appeal in writing the Board’s decision(s) to the club membership. The appeal shall be heard at a special meeting of the club members in good standing. The decision of the club membership to uphold, reverse or change the Board’s decisions(s) shall be final.

7.2 d. If, at any point during the “conduct unbecoming” process, possible criminal wrongdoing is discovered, the matter shall be reported to the proper authorities.

7.2 e. All materials, facts, and information related to the investigation, determination, and appeal (if any) shall be always kept confidential by any parties or persons involved in any part of the process.

7.2 f. The club shall retain all official records on the matter (allegation report, investigation report, hearing record, Board report, and appeal record if any) in a confidential file as long as required by applicable law and shall send a copy to the Executive Director of Kiwanis International, to be retained in a confidential file. 7.3 A club shall discipline any member whose conduct is determined by the club to be “conduct unbecoming a member of the Kiwanis family,” or else the club shall be considered out of compliance with acceptable standards of Kiwanis International and may have its charter suspended or revoked as provided in the Kiwanis International Bylaws.

7.4 If an officer or director is alleged by the president or a majority vote of the Board to be failing to perform his/her duties, the Board will investigate the allegation and make a determination at a special meeting in executive session held within forty-five (45) days after the investigation is complete or as soon as reasonably possible. Written notice of the allegation, investigation, and meeting must be given to the accused member at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing. The accused member will be permitted to attend the hearing and present a defense. If the allegation(s) is sustained by no less than a two-third (2/3) vote of the entire Board, the position will be declared vacant.

ARTICLE 8. FUNDS AND ACCOUNTING

I. OPTIONAL POLICY: STANDING COMMITTEES (if any)

This club has the following standing committees:

1. Membership

The Membership Committee's main objective is ensuring that the club is growing and that new members are being onboarded efficiently. The Membership Committee will develop policies and procedures to standardize the onboarding process so that all members have a similar and shared onboarding experience. The Membership Committee should also take the lead in club recruitment - understanding what information we need to gather from prospective members, be knowledgeable about the onboarding process, be able to communicate how club dues work, and be our chief ambassadors at each event, encouraging people to learn more about joining. The membership will report once a month at general meetings - updating us on club recruitment efforts, setting up mentor/mentee relationships, and letting us know what changes are being proposed in the onboarding process and other such duties assigned by the Board.

2. Social and Outreach

The Social and Outreach committee's main objective is to promote events, initiatives, and recruitment to the public. S&O will develop a process for members to request media support. S&O will determine what requests will be available, what a reasonable turnaround time is, and what assets will be needed to complete the request (copy draft, images, etc.). It is not the responsibility of S&O to proactively create content for events, they exist to fulfill requests from other arms of the organization. If Social and Outreach wants to make suggestions for social media posts, it will be their responsibility to present their ideas to the relevant committee and have that committee approve the request. Social and Outreach will be able to post on socials as they see fit for general club information without approval from general membership. Social and Outreach will appoint a webmaster. This is one person who will have access to the website. Social and Outreach will report biweekly at general meetings - updating the club on ongoing campaigns: when the media support request came in, when the request is due to be finished, and if there are any assets still required. They will also report on any scheduled posts regarding general club membership before they are set to be posted. This will increase accountability and transparency. The committee will perform these tasks and other such duties assigned by the Board.

3. Finance

The Finance Committee's main objective is to ensure that the club is financially healthy and that club funds are being spent responsibly. The Finance Committee will also own the business aspects of the club (tax forms and filing, business documentation, etc.) The Finance Committee will not be chaired by the treasurer. The Finance Committee will develop a budget process for other committees to follow. Before any club funds are spent, a request must be submitted and approved by the Finance Committee through a standardized process. The Finance Committee is also responsible for member reimbursement and requests for reimbursement. The chair of the Finance Committee will review all requests along with the rest of the committee and determine whether they will be approved. The bank account is also the responsibility of the Finance Committee and the treasurer, and the president will always be a signer on the club account. The Finance Committee will report once a month at general meetings - updating the club on money going out/money coming in. The committee will perform these tasks and other such duties assigned by the Board.
